For Railroad Commissioner.
HON. WM. F. KLAIR
of Lexington, Fayette county, announced as candidate for reelection to the office of Railroad Commissioner, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the August primary.

For Commonwealth's Attorney.
We are authorized to announce W. H. Foreman, of Lexington, a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for the Eleventh Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the August primary.

For Representative.
We are authorized to announce Chas. O. Durham as a candidate for Representative in the lower house of the Kentucky Legislature from Washington county, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the August primary.

In this issue appears the announcement of W. H. Spengler of Marion county as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney for the Eleventh Judicial District. Mr. Spengler is a young lawyer of ability and integrity both of which are essential qualifications for a man who aspires to so important an office. He has for several years been a member of the Lebanon bar and stands well with members of his profession, and with the general public as well. Should he receive the nomination he would make the party a strong candidate, and when elected would make the people an able and conscientious official.

The attention of our readers is called to the announcement of W. F. Klair as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for reelection to the Office of Railroad Commissioner for the District. Mr. Klair has served the people faithfully for several years, and during that time there have been no complaints made against him for favoring the railroad beyond what was their due, and it is a fact worthy of note that during the time he has been in office the fare charged on trains has been reduced from three cents per mile to two cents per mile. He has been a faithful servant of the people and is entitled to an endorsement.

Mr. C. O. Durham announces in this issue his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the office of Representative from Washington county. Mr. Durham has for several years been a popular school teacher in the county and has always stood high as an educator. He is well educated and a highly qualified young man who would make a good representative.

THIS WOMAN'S SICKNESS

Quickly Yielded To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Edgerton, N.J.—"I want to thank you for the wonderful good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered very much from the trouble of bearing down, and at times could hardly walk across the room. I was unable to do my household or attend to my baby I was so weak. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me a world of good, and now I am strong and healthy, can do my work and take my baby. I advise all suffering women to take it and get well as I did."—Mrs. FANNIE COOPER, R.F.D., Edgerton, N.J.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ailments known to the world. It is the result of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured the health of some again in the future. If our letter escapes the waste basket this time.

Valley Hill
Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Gostley were the guests of the latter's mother at Bardston, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Zula Weekly has returned home after an extended visit to relatives at Fairfield.
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Beam entertained the following at Kirk Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. M. Reed, Mr. Ed Gostley and wife, Mrs. Nellie Thurman and Messrs. J. C. Harman and Cecil Hughes.
Mr. Ed Bollitt has removed from Fairfield to his home at this place which he has recently purchased from Frank Jones.
Correction—Through a typographical error in our letter last week the announcement of the illness of Mr. M. Reed, should have read, Mr. Henry Reed, and we are sorry to say that he is no better at this writing.
Mrs. Jas. Schoeman of Louisville was the guest of Mrs. Pamer Gostley last week.
Vivian Tatum recently purchased a bunch of hogs from Ed Gostley. Price unknown.

Cedar Grove
As we have not had any news from this little village for some time, we will try and jot down a few items.
We are sorry to report Mr. R. P. Blanford, Sr., very ill at this writing.
Mr. and Mrs. Clem Newton were in our midst Tuesday on business.
Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carrio will leave in a few days for Ravick where they will make their future home. Although we regret to see Mr. and Mrs. Carrio leave us we wish them success in their new home.

Mrs. C. M. Smith is very ill at this writing with a gripe.

Miss Lizzie Blanford who has been on the sick list for several months is slowly improving.
Several from this place attended the funeral of Mrs. J. R. Montgomery at St. Rose Monday.

Mr. R. Carrio and sister, Miss Nell, will spend the latter part of the week with friends at Loretto.
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Smith spent Wednesday with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carrio.

Tail of our correspondents was of the opinion of our Valley Bill correspondent we would save have a new long letter every week for our kind editor.
We think that unless the road workers get busy and work our roads in and around Cedar Grove we will soon not have any news.

For Representative
I have been unexpectedly solicited by many friends from different parts of the county to make the race for Representative of Washington County to the next Legislature. After due consideration, I have decided to announce myself as candidate subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August primary. I have been engaged in farming and teaching for the past twenty years and four years of this time as Principal of Texas Graded School, and believe I am in a position to know the real needs of our citizens in the way of legislation.

C. O. DURHAM
If elected I expect to vote as I would influence for the farmer.
I am opposed to so much game and fish laws. A farmer can't go out to kill a rabbit without some one hounding him around to exact a fine from him.
I am opposed to tax shavers coming in and hunting up some old record and exacting four or five years back tax on some old notes or mortgages that have been paid up for so many years but by some accident have not been released from the County's book. I am opposed to members of Legislature riding on free passes thereby obligating themselves to the R. R. Companies.
Last year our farmers spent thousands of dollars for school books and most of the text books are worthless. We had to buy a new Spelling book that was better than any Speller we have ever had, for a 20ct Speller that is not as good as an Almanac.

I am in favor of less creating of fat offices, less taxation and better roads, and better schools. These we can not have unless the farmer is protected because he is the bone and sinews of this Commonwealth.
It is true that legislation will not bring prosperity but it can and should guard and protect the industrial pursuits of the people. It should protect the weak and restrain the strong just as long as the powerful oppress the weak, wrong rules prevail and waiting justice sleeps.

FORESAW WARFARE IN AIR

Horse Walpole Recognized the Value of the Balloon, While It Was in Its Infancy.

A remarkable prediction of the part that aerial machines would one day play in warfare was made by Horse Walpole—described by Lord Macaulay as the best letter writer in the English language—in a letter written from his famous Gothic castle, Strawberry Hill, to the countess of Upper Ossory on October 23, 1784.

Not only did Walpole forecast the use of balloons in war, but he also suggested the manner in which such warfare would be waged. His words: "Balloons are a subject I did not intend to touch. If they can be improved into anything more than brooding-nest kites, it must be in a century or two after I shall be laid low. A century is no account, means I have lived years hence. After one century is over, all duration is of the same length; and everything that one guesses will happen after oneself is no more than a vision."

"How much more expeditiously the East or South will be ravaged and butchered than they have been by the old-fashioned cannon method of 'vigilance'." I observe that no improvements of science or knowledge makes the world a lot wiser.

The first and second scenes in a Balloon had been made by Montgolfier in 1783.

GREAT LIBRARY OF LEMBERG
The latest statistics of the University Collection of the European War Zone.

The last report of the Lemberg University Library was printed in No. 3 of the Polish Monthly Kultura. It reported 240,000 volumes. Of these, 1,644 volumes came from the Galician public libraries, 1,953 volumes from institutions and government publications, 2,203 volumes from individuals or private institutions. In 1913 67,325 readers used 220,317 volumes for outside reading, making a total of 76,832 readers and 227,152 volumes. The increase in circulation was 1,455, thanks to easier access to the improved catalogues and handy catalogues of periodicals and publications in the library.

The University library of Lemberg was founded in 1774 by Joseph II from the books of the confiscated churches of Galicia. In 1848 it was almost completely destroyed by fire. Its collection was restored from contributions of duplicates from libraries of the scholastic and the collection of S. Borkowski so that in 1898 it once more contained 100,000 volumes.

Why He Did Not Contribute.
"About the very poorest excuse I have ever heard for a rich man not to make a contribution to charity, a specific case where a lot of us were trying to do something for an excellent local cause," said a Bronzette, the New York Sun remarks, "was handed out to me by a wealthy friend on whom I had been sent to call by the committee because he was my friend. I stated the case to him and asked him for $100—little enough considering what he had—but I got it not at all. Neither did I get anything, and his excuse was that his income tax was so heavy he really couldn't afford to give any money except for personal necessities. He was dead serious about it, too, and didn't see any sense in his position. In it even when I gave him the laugh. He lent an altogether other man, either, but that income tax somehow had got on his nerves."

Ten and Ten.
At a tea given at the Ruhl in Nice to the officers of the Mediterranean fleet, S. Royal Tyler, the well-known sailing, said, adding toward a sign, "The Debut," which might be translated "Ten and Ten."
"A French maid, when I refused her the other afternoon, exclaimed: 'That monster is not like his fellow-countrymen, then?'"
"Not like them? How so?" I said.
"Why? Did I pick up one of your American notes the other day—a Howell note—and, though I don't read English, I saw the words 'nothing but tea,' 'tea,' 'tea,' on every page. Now people who talk so much about tea must be inordinately fond of it, twice tea, monster?"
"She thought, you see, that our article had had the same meaning as 'ten' in French."

Highest Average For The Season At The Washington County House

Last year at the close of the season we had the highest market average of any house here, and today we lead them all, as usual. Our average selling price is higher than any house here. We have also sold the highest priced basket, $31.00. We have not advertised this, as we didn't want to mislead the farmers, as this kind is very scarce this year. Our books will show that we have very few reflections, consequently our customers have been pretty well pleased. If you have not sold your crop, bring it to the Washington County House, and let me prove that we can handle your crop a little better than anyone else. A trial will convince. We have had a much stronger market this week, and it looks like it will remain steady. Yours truly,

WORKING FOR HIS MAJESTY

King Alfonso's Perfectly Truthful Answer to Chamberlain's Keen Questioning.

An under-secretary of the Spanish legation told at a dinner party a little story about the king of Spain. "King Alfonso," he began, "is fond of taking moon trips into the moon. He motored recently through a wild region of Castile. He put up with his modest entourage at a more than modest inn.
"I am sure," he said, laughing, "that they won't know me here!"
"Well, they did not know him," stated the other. "They treated him like an ordinary traveler. So much so, in fact, that when he went to shave the next morning he found there was no mirror in his room. So he went down into the innyard in his shirtwaist and there a chambermaid brought him a broken piece of mirror, which he set up beside the well and proceeded to lather cheeks and chin."
"The girl stood chatting with him. Finally she said in an odd voice: 'You are not just any ordinary traveler, are you?'"
"Why do you ask me that?" laughed the king.
"I don't know," said the maid. "But there's something about you—perhaps you belong to royal court at Madrid?"
"Yes, I do," he answered.
"Then you work for his majesty himself?"
"Yes, I do."
"And what do you do for him?" asked the pretty chambermaid.
"Oh, lots of things," the king replied. "I'm shaving him just now."

STATESMAN OF SIMPLE LIFE.
M. Giolitti, the retiring Italian prime minister, is a statesman who follows the simple life. He has lived for twenty years in the same modest house, and neither he nor Mme. Giolitti ever goes into society. When Mme. Giolitti made a change of air she takes a room in an unpretentious country pension which charges only $2 a day, and when M. Giolitti joins her for the weekend he never fails to invite the local doctor and the local schoolmaster to join him in his rubber of whist.

Sobering is Studying Lay.
"Yes, and from his looks, I imagine he has been practicing a little too much at the bar."

PREMONITORY.
Blossie—Why do you call Grouch-leigh the Italian tadpole?
Sibbie—Oh, he always feels that he has a kick coming.

WHY HE SEEKS THE CLUB.
Mrs. Outanen—Your husband spends most of his time at the club, doesn't he?
Mrs. Gadder—Yes. I suppose he hates to stay home alone—Jodge.

Fish Wrangling.
It was recently discovered that there exist in Bombay waters several species of fish which feed on mosquito larvae, and Major Lester, director of the bacteriological laboratory, is now conducting experiments designed to show which are the most suitable fish to propagate.

JUST A TRIFLE, FASCINATING
M. de Fouquieres, Author of Elegance in Paris, Wouldn't Even Eat Candy Cigar in Ladies' Car.

A Newport woman, apropos of the Duchess de Gramont's brilliant ball, was talking about Andre de Fouquieres,
the author of elegance in Paris.
"M. de Fouquieres is too metical one in his elegance," she said with a witty smile. "When a duke visits him, he advances 18 steps. When a baron, he advances six steps. When it's an equal he does not advance at all, and when it is an inferior—an American, say—he actually recedes!"
—Oh, yes, M. de Fouquieres is ridiculously meticulous. One, en route from Paris to Louisville, when he was a little boy, a lady gave him a chocolate cigar.
"And what will you do with it?"
the lady asked.
"Little Andre put the end of the chocolate cigar in his mouth and said,
"It'll go into the smoking compartment and eat it," he said."—Minnapa ble Journal.

she was in her usual good health until late in the day, when she was suddenly stricken, never returning consciousness. Her illness terminated in death on Friday shortly after noon. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Montgomery was a Miss O'Daniel being a daughter of the late Sim O'Daniel of Marion county. She was born forty years ago near St.
Marys where she grew to womanhood, and spent her early years.
Nine years ago she was united in marriage to Mr. J. R. Montgomery who with the following children survives, Hatlie, Jas R. Jr., Robert and Angela. She was a woman whose whole life-ing was a succession of kindness, unmindful of the affairs of others, apt to help them in their needs and sorrows. During her life-she was always held in high esteem by all who knew her. Pu-neral services were conducted at St. Rose Monday with High Requiem Mass, and burial east of the St. Rose Cemetery. The large number of persons who followed her remains to the last resting place showed the esteem in which she was held.

Twins Die
The Angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Smith of Louisville and took their twin daughters, Mary Elizabeth and Catherine Marie one week. Mr. and Mrs.
Smith were formerly of this county.
These souls were like an angel child. Where night had long her mourning sables o'er each ray.
Until God's dawning love came with its light,
And made their eyes rose windows to the day.
